Friday, June 17th: 25th Anniversary Charter Night at Holiday Inn. 6:30 Social, 7:00 Dinner. We hope every member will attend and celebrate 25 years of the Seymour Noon Lions Club.

December 25, 2005: Yes, December 25th is Christmas. It's also the day that Lion Dennis Carlson and his wife are expecting their first baby. Nice work Dennis!!!

The Latest Lions News...

Membership Drive: April 28th was our club's Membership Drive meeting. Seven guests were in attendance, and we hope to see them again soon at a future meeting. Lion Bill Rinehart is commended for bringing three guests. Others who brought guests; Lions Deryk Baurle, Rick Quintero, Mark Thomas, and Frank Ruane. Please remember that guests are always welcome at any meeting.

Kidsfest: Kidsfest was held on Saturday, April 30th at Seymour's National Guard Armory. The event was well attended again this year, and our club was a big help once again. Several Lions arrived early to help with set-up and to assist vendors as they prepared for the day. Then at ten, when visitors began pouring in, Lions provided eye tests. Although we didn't have any real eye doctors at our booth this year... some people mistook Bob Anderson for one. ↓

372 Eyeglasses Collected... The promise of a pizza party is all the motivation needed to collect 372 pair of eyeglasses. Lion Jack McCory organized a contest among several Seymour Middle School classes. In roughly two weeks, Mr. Thompson's seventh grade class collected well over one hundred glasses and won the pizza party. The Seymour Daily Tribune and Columbus Republic were on hand to document the accomplishment of this hard-working class. Flip to the back to see pictures.

Purdue Student...

A Purdue University student was visiting a relative in Boston over spring break. He went to a large party and met a pretty co-ed. He was attempting to start up a conversation with the line, "Where does you go to school?" The coed, of course, was not overly impressed with his grammar or hick drawl, but she did answer his question. "Yale," she replied. The Purdue student took a big, deep breath and shouted, "WHERE DOES YOU GO TO SCHOOL?"
